

NextUp Phone Call Log Expectations

“Program partners are expected to make a minimum of thirty minutes per week of phone calls home to parents. The purpose of each phone call should be to give positive feedback to parents regarding the student’s behavior, effort, and/or accomplishments. Parent contact information will be provided to program partners at the start of the session. All program partners will maintain a log of phone calls made that should be submitted at the close of the session.”